Kajal Adak □□□□ She is a leading civil advocate affiliated with the Howrah Bar Association, where she is available at Room No. 1(first floor). Operating from a highly professional chamber at her Shibpur residence, she leads a dedicated team of junior advocates. She has successfully built a robust network of upcoming legal professionals across Howrah, mentoring them with patience and exceptional guidance. Her educational foundation is deeply rooted in the local community. She attended Shibpur Hindu Girls' High School and Shibpur Bhabani Balika Vidyalaya for her schooling, before pursuing her higher education at Narasingha Dutta College in Kadamtala,
Howrah, under the University of Calcutta. Her advocacy skills are complemented by a remarkable rapport with the judiciary, making her a highly respected figure in the legal community. She carries forward a distinguished legal legacy left by her late husband, Alok Adak, who was himself a renowned civil practitioner within the Howrah jurisdiction. Deeply committed to the legal fraternity, she is a constant and visible presence at almost all Howrah Court programmes and official events. Balancing sharp legal acumen with a passion for guiding the next generation, she continues to be a cornerstone of the Howrah legal ecosystem. Keywords - Civil Law - Howrah jurisdiction
