Dolly Mondal □□□□ She is a dynamic civil and criminal law practitioner based at the Howrah Civil Court Complex. She built a strong foundation in litigation while working with the prestigious chamber of the late Sumanta Kumar Bandyopadhyay (Howrah Bar Association Room No. 4), earning a stellar reputation early in her career. Known for her high energy and absolute honesty, Dolly has been appointed as a court commissioner in multiple cases, a testament to her reliability and sharp legal mind. She specializes in civil litigation, domestic violence, cheque bouncing disputes, maintenance cases, and consumer matters. In addition to her primary practice in Howrah, she actively accepts cases under the Uluberia jurisdiction. Clients value her accessible approach and her dedicated advocacy across both civil and criminal courtrooms. Whether navigating complex property disputes or handling sensitive family matters, Dolly brings integrity and results-driven focus to every case she undertakes.
