Payel Panja is an advocate practicing under the jurisdiction of the Howrah District Court. She holds a Master of Laws degree from South Calcutta Law College, affiliated with Calcutta University. Specializing in criminal law, Payel handles cases involving cybercrime, corporate fraud, and financial scams. She also manages bail applications and defends clients facing criminal charges. Payel operates primarily from the Howrah Criminal Court Complex, making her easily accessible for consultations, urgent bail hearings, and legal representation. Whether you need immediate assistance with a digital crime or strategic defense for financial allegations, she offers dedicated legal counsel tailored to your case.
