Nikhil Bose is a distinguished civil lawyer who earned his law degree from the Department of Law (Hazra Law College), Calcutta University. Since 1987, he has built a stellar reputation practicing across major judicial forums, regularly appearing before the Alipore Civil Court, the City Civil Court in Kolkata, and the Civil Courts at Howrah.
Bose possesses deep expertise in property matters—including registration, transfers, joint development agreements, and complex negotiations—alongside a strong track record in consumer disputes, arbitration, and mediation. A dedicated member of the legal community, he frequently participates in Howrah Bar Association initiatives, where his leadership has been recognized through multiple terms as Vice President. Renowned for his sharp legal acumen, he commands equal eloquence in both English and Bengali, making him a highly trusted and formidable advocate for his clients. Registration No: WB/656/1987
