Arpan Roy is a formidable criminal lawyer whose unwavering dedication to securing bail and fighting trial battles has earned him profound respect across the Bar. Known for putting client defense above financial motives, he invests significant time in every individual case, offering definitive, energetic, and highly accessible representation. His practice spans across major legal venues, including the Howrah Judiciary, Calcutta Metropolitan Court, and Alipore Sessions Court, where he handles everything from high-stakes criminal trials and revisions to domestic violence and cheque-bouncing matters. Backed by a strong, reliable network of juniors and affiliated lawyers, Arpan has seamlessly adapted to India's changing legal landscape. He expertly navigates the transition from legacy IPC and Cr.P.C. frameworks to the modern Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita (BNS) and Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita (BNSS), ensuring his clients receive precise, up-to-date advocacy.
