Dipshikha Bandopadhyay is a dedicated practicing advocate at the Howrah Court, specializing primarily in civil matters for the last 5 Years. Coming from a respected family of legal professionals—with her father having served as the secretary of the Howrah Bar Association—law is a natural calling for her. She earned her B.A. degree from Calcutta University and completed her legal education at Sureswar Dutta Law College. Based near Nabanna, the West Bengal Government Secretariat, Dipshikha maintains a robust independent practice while having trained under reputed senior advocates. Beyond her primary base in Howrah, she actively represents clients across multiple outstation jurisdictions, including the Alipore and Barasat District Courts, as well as the Sreerampore and Chandannagar Subdivisional Courts in Hooghly. She has built a reputation for her exceptional expertise in property verification and registration processes, offering reliable, precise guidance across both the Howrah and Kolkata Registries.
