Bushra Tul Jannat □□□□ She is an Advocate of the Supreme Court of Bangladesh, practicing primarily within the High Court Division. Her legal career spans multiple tiers of the judicial system, allowing her to manage complex cases from trial courts up to the appellate level. With an active membership in the Dhaka Taxes Bar Association, she has developed a strong focus on taxation and fiscal law. She regularly handles corporate tax issues, income tax tribunals, customs, VAT disputes, and financial compliance matters. At the foundational level, her work with the Dhaka Bar Association involves civil and criminal litigation, including family law, property disputes, and trial-level representation in lower courts. Furthermore, her enrollment in the Supreme Court Bar Association empowers her to take on high-stakes appellate practice, constitutional matters, and writ petitions. This broad professional background equips her to provide comprehensive legal support across corporate, civil, and constitutional fields. Keywords: Civil Cases, Criminal Cases, Taxation
