Tanaya Ghosh (Mitra) Trained by her advocate father in his respected Salkiya chamber, Tanaya Mitra has built an exemplary legal career spanning forty years. Specialising in civil law, she has mastered multiple facets of the discipline with an uncompromising dedication to excellence. She is widely celebrated for her matchless legal drafting, pointed courtroom arguments, and a deep understanding of complex case laws backed by rigorous research. Today, she runs a robust independent chamber where she is ably assisted by her advocate daughter, Devadutta Ghosh. Beyond her exceptional caliber as a legal practitioner, Tanaya Mitra stands out as a true leader in her field. Her absolute mastery over both English and Bengali makes her an exceptionally eloquent and listenable orator. Possessing a unique ability to bridge gaps, she effortlessly impresses the veteran advocates' community and ordinary citizens alike, establishing herself as a formidable and deeply respected voice in civil litigation. □□ Registration No.: WB/688/1977 Link Keywords - Civil Litigation - Howrah Bar Association - Legal Drafting
